PART 2: Your comments

Brief comments on this topic and your SAQ answers

A grey upward-pointing arrow is positioned between the text box and the comment box.

We like to receive your feedback on how you found the learning materials for a unit (positives and areas for improvement) so that we can continue to improve our provision. This section of the SAQ answer sheet gives you a chance to share your thoughts on the topic and also to reflect on your performance after self-assessing the accuracy of your SAQ answers.
